

Editor, in speaking of the success of the King's Children Society, pays entirely too high a tribute to its president.

Brother, do not, I pray you, overlook our large and enthusiastic corps of workers. Sisters Mary Metsger, Emma K. Lichty, Laura H. Robinson, Ida Simmonds, and Brethren Bemenderfer, Menaugh, Livengood, Myers, Wise, Shively, Ross, Miller, and many others who have done noble work along this line, whose names, lack of space forbids mentioning, whose hearts and souls have been thrown into this work.

We were sorry that sickness in Brother Shively's family prevented his attending the convention. Many have been the words of encouragement, and good advice received from Brother Shively, and we pray God that Sister Shively may speedily recover.

Brother Cassel, of Philadelphia, has a big heart, and is in the young people's work.

Many promised us that they would bring the work of the King's Children Society before their District Conventions this autumn. Don't forget it brethren. We must double the effective work of the society the coming year.

We notice that the orders for the King's Children Topic Cards are coming in fully a month earlier this year than last. This is encouraging. Do not wait until the last day of the month, but order in time.

We are now ready to fill all orders for cards for the coming year. We are getting out a nice card for the Floral Committee, and also for the other committees. Send in your orders, and have your supplies for next year in time.

The new edition of the Constitution is now ready, and is a neat piece of work. In the new edition, we have added a Committee on Literature, and provided for the organization of the various church districts, and we earnestly urge that the District Conventions that assemble this autumn, take this matter up and further the work by providing a District Board, the president of which will see that the various churches in the districts are organized under the National Constitution. In union, there is strength.

The price of the Constitution is 10 cents each, or $1.00 per dozen. Topic Cards are $1.00 per hundred.

Brother Ross will go into the field as organizer for the King's Children and Solicitor for the Book and Tract Committee.

Thus we notice that great progress has been made the past year, and the present indications are that the coming year will surpass the most sanguine expectations of the most hopeful.

J. O. TALLEY.

PROGRAM FOR THE K. C.

Indiana State Conference, Milford, Indiana,
Oct. 22, 23, 24.

1. Devotional Services, Fletcher Kroft.
2. Address of Welcome, W. C. Perry.
3. Response, A. R. Bemenderfer.
4. Report of Secretary.
5. The Scope of Our Work,
W. D. Furry.
6. The Relation of the District Work to the National Work,
Paper, Miss Ida Summonds.
7. Future of the King's Children,
Eleazer Fryman.
8. Practical Teaching,
Mrs. A. R. Bemenderfer.
9. Literature, an Important Factor,
Mrs. Belle Hinebaugh.
10. How to Secure Attendance,
I. N. Miller.
11. Discussion, Methods and Means,
Led by A. S. Menaugh.
12. Relation of the Work to the General Church Work, by Elder Ross, General Organizer.
13. How can our Young People help the Church, G. W. Rench.
14. Co-operation In the Church and Out.
Erank Switzer.
15. Importance of Junior Work,
Mrs. W. C. Perry.
16. Shall the Truths That Have Rejoiced Our Own Souls not be Given Our Children, by
W. W. Summers.

MARY A. METZGER, Secretary.
C. F. YODER, Assistant Sec.

FROM LAPAZ, IND.

A special meeting was called to order by elder I. N. Miller at the new church. Saturday evening, Sept. 14. After reading the Constitution of the King's Children Society, Brother Miller proceeded to organize one of the said societies, the result being twenty-eight members signing the pledge at once. The organization was effected with the following officers: President, Miss Carrie Burger; Vice President, Miss Rosa Walters; secretary, Miss Eva Clayton; assistant secretary, Miss Grace Hostetler; treasurer, Miss Maude Whiting; marshal, Martin Bechtel. Active members were chosen on the committees and I am sure will all do their duty. Miss Olive Clayton was chosen leader and on Sunday evening, Sept. 15, we held our first meeting which was a grand success. We are young and can not do much, but we hope the King, our Master, will accept our small deeds and good intentions.

Yours for the cause of Christ,
EMMA HOUSER.

THE most important step toward heaven for you is the one you take to-day.

Sisters' S. C. E.

FROM THE PRESIDENT.

List of pledges with cash received since last report.

Mrs. Cordelia Bear, Elkhart, Ind.,	$1.00
Brethren S. S., Pittsburg, Pa.,	1.00
Young People's Society of Brethren church, Pittsburg, Pa.,	1.00
King's Children of Brethren church, Pittsburg, Pa.,	1.00
F. K. Wilcox, Pittsburg, Pa.,	1.00
Maggie C. Wilcox, " "	1.00
Mrs. D. J. Bole, " "	1.00
Lillian Griest, " "	1.00
Daniel & Mary Miller, Fairview, Ind.,	5.00
Mrs. Mary Simpson,	1.00
Oliver Hummel, Homerville, Ohio,	1.00
Mrs. S. Tummon, Pittsburg, Pa.,	1.00
E. E. Haskins, Johnstown, Pa.,	1.00
Fair Haven S. S. C. E., Ohio,	1.00
Mrs. J. F. Ullery, South Bend, Ind.,	1.00
" Sophia Beim, Louisville, O.,	1.00
Miss Lydia Horner, Stahlstown, Pa.,	1.00
Mrs. M. C. Myers, Mt. Pleasant, "	1.00
Mrs. Sadie Miller, Stahlstown, Pa.,	1.00
(Cash) John Hart,	1.00
" Hart Stuart,	1.00
" Mrs. R. C. Sellers, Miamisburg,	4.00
Total,	$29.00

LAURA E. N. GROSSNICKLE.

TAKE THE LESSON HOME.

"Isn't it curious, Cynthia," the colonel said to Mrs. Calliper, "how sometimes the current of our lives is deflected by the most trivial incidents? Now there was Philetus Goblinton; you remember what a vain, consequential man he was? But all that was changed by just the slightest thing in the world. He went one Sunday to a church where he had never been before and where he was quite unknown. As usual, he made toward the middle aisle, where, at home, he was accustomed to sit; but the man that met him led him not down the middle aisle, but along the back of the pews and down a side aisle, and he gave him a seat pretty well back.

"This was a crusher for Philetus. Here was a man, evidently a man of some account, who, with the unprejudiced eyes of a total stranger, had sized him up as a man of side-aisle importance. Could it be that his friends and acquaintances really so regarded him? It set him thinking; and the result you see in the modest, thoughtful Philetus Goblinton of to-day?"

"Jason, dear," said Mrs. Calliper, "don't you suppose it would be a good thing for you to go to a strange church once in awhile?"